

SHOTA GVINERIA

Ambassador Shota Gvineria is Lecturer at Baltic Defence College in Tartu and Senior Fellow in Economic Policy Research Center.

Shota Gvineria has worked with the security question for the last 20 years in various positions. He has been a Deputy Secretary at National Security Council of Georgia (2017-2018), Ambassador at Large at NATO & Security Policy at Ministry of Foreign Affairs (2016-2017), he has been the Head of NATO Division at MFA of Georgia (2008 – 2009) and he has worked in various positions at Politico-Military Department at MFA of Georgia (2001 – 2008).

Shota Gvineria was a Foreign Policy Advisor to the Minister of Defense of Georgia (2015 – 2016) and Director of European Affairs Department at MFA of Georgia (2009 - 2010).

Shota Gvineria served as an Ambassador of Georgia to the Kingdom of the Netherlands at MFA of Georgia (2010 - 2014).

Shota Gvineria has three masters degree. He has Master's in strategic security studies, International security affairs and combating terrorism from National Defense University (Washington DC), Master's in International Relations, International Relations and Affairs from Diplomatic School of Madrid (Spain) and Master's in Public Administration and Georgian Technical University.