TAAVI TOOM

Taavi Toom is a former journalist and diplomat of Estonia. After completing his studies on International Law at the University of Tartu, he worked as a Correspondent and Editor of Foreign News at the leading Estonian newspaper Postimees. In 1994 he joined the Estonian Foreign Ministry as the Head of the EU Division, responsible for coordination of Estonia's preparations for accession to the European Union. In 1996-1999 he worked as the First Secretary, Head of Political Affairs and Press at the Estonian Mission to the EU in Brussels. Later on he has served as the Spokesman of the MFA and as Ambassador of Estonia to Denmark and Poland. Ambassador Toom has also been Director of Security Policy, Director of the EU Department and Public Diplomacy Department at the Estonian MFA. He is passionate about international affairs and communication. Since 2019 he is working as an independent consultant making his knowledge and experience available to young diplomats and future leaders, public and private organisations in Estonia and abroad. He has partnered with Estonian School of Diplomacy in a number of projects and courses on European Affairs, Foreign Policy Analysis, Public Diplomacy and Digital Diplomacy.
