

Eesti Diplomaatide Kool
Estonian School of Diplomacy

WOLFGANG MÜHLBERGER

Wolfgang Mühlberger is a senior research fellow in the European Union research programme at The Finnish Institute of International Affairs-FIIA in Stockholm. He held positions at the Austrian National Defence Academy, with the Economist Intelligence Unit, and the Austrian Ministry of Foreign Affairs. He studied Arabic and Islamic Studies as well as Economics and Business Administration in Vienna and was a Visiting Researcher at the Institute for National Security

Studies (INSS) in Tel Aviv (2011) and NATO Defense College in Rome (2012). His main areas of expertise are EU Mediterranean Policies, Political Reform, Democracy and Governance, and Security Policies. His main countries of expertise are Libya, Tunisia, and Egypt. Wolfgang Mühlberger research focuses on post-revolutionary Libya, the civil war in Syria, the Israeli-Arab conflict, and EU external relations in the southern Mediterranean. Mühlberger is an author of several publications.