

Stefano Braghierioli is an Associate Professor of European Studies at the Johan Skytte Institute of Political Studies, University of Tartu, where he also serves as Director of the Master's programme in European Studies. He received his PhD from the University of Siena (Italy) in 2010 and has previously held positions at the ARENA Centre for European Studies (University of Oslo) and the Bahçeşehir University Center for Economic and Social Research (BETAM) in Istanbul.

His research focuses on party politics in the European Parliament, EU politics, Euroscepticism and populism, and comparative politics. His recent work has appeared in leading academic journals, including the Journal of Contemporary European Studies, New Perspectives, Southeast European and Black Sea Studies, Journal of Legislative Studies, East European Politics, and Religion, State and Society, as well as in edited volumes published by renowned academic presses.

In 2025, he was awarded the Order of the Star of Italy (Ordine della Stella d'Italia), rank of Knight (Cavaliere), by the President of the Italian Republic, Sergio Mattarella.